

Virginia Sprint Series

IMCA RaceSaver Sprint Series
Race # 1 Saturday April 11, 2026
Hagerstown Speedway, Hagerstown, Maryland

by Jim Haines

Logan Spahr On Rails at Hub City Oval

Logan Spahr had his car like it was on rails at Hagerstown Saturday showing speed all night long sweeping his heat and staying fast all feature long to take his first win of the season.

Thirty nine IMCA sprinters signed in with heat wins going to Jake Gomola, Logan Spahr, Ken Duke jr. and Jeff Weaver and B main wins going to Chris Dolan and Tyler Schell.

Logan Spahr and Ryan Lynn paced the field to green With Spahr out first and Jeff Miller, Mike Melair quickly closing on Spahr with Kenny Heffner, Ryan Lynn and Ken Duke all racing in the top pack.

Spahr continued to lead with Miller staying with him as Melair closed in and made his way to second as the others swapped spots trying to go forward.

After a yellow for a spin and a stalled car they were right back at it as Donnie Hendershot was showing speed and closed in on Melair going to second then he went after Spahr.

Hendershot was closing but would run out of laps as Spahr shot under the waving checkered flag for the win.

At the line it was Logan Spahr, Donnie Hendershot, Mike Melair, Ken Duke Jr., Kenny Heffner, Timmy Bittner, Dylan Shatzer, Jake Gomola, Ryan Lynn, Zack Rhodes, Cole Dewease, Doug Dodson, Kasey Weaver, Josh Spicer, Jim Paddock, Fred Arnold, Kolby Weaver, Jeff Weaver, John Scarborough, Colton Hendershot, Chris Dolan, Chris Meleason, Tyler Erdley, Tyler Schell, Reece Radabaugh and Jerrett Cavalet.

DNS Caleb Harris, Alyssa Cullum, Landon Tressler, Croix Beasom, Tyler Brehm, Micheal Alleman, Jerald Harris, Jacob Wood, Brian Woodson, Daren Bolac, Matthew Kline, AJ Barton and Breaden Varner.