

Virginia Sprint Series

IMCA RaceSaver Sprint Series
Laurel Highlands Sprint Series
Race # 3 Saturday April 26th 2025
Winchester Speedway, Virginia

by Jim Haines

Kasey Weaver from Wreckers to Checkers

Kasey Weaver really turned things around after last week at Hagerstown as it ended against the fence early, last night couldn't have been more opposite after finishing second in his heat he went on to lead every lap of the feature for the win. Twenty-Four sprinters signed in with Fred Arnold, Matt Mullins and John Scarborough taking wins. After morning showers, the weather turned windy then cold as the feature lined up with Kasey Weaver and Matt Mullins on the front row.

Weaver took off and stayed low with Mullins making it to the bottom for second. It was nose to tail for the field lap after lap being smooth to stay low and keep the best line. On lap eight Mullins slid up a little allowing Dylan Shatzer to make it to second.

After a yellow on lap thirteen Kevin Darling made it to third with Mullins and Fred Arnold top five. Weaver continued up front with Arnold Making it to fourth and Kolby Weaver now fifth and laps counting down. With four lap to go the field was bunched up after a spin and as the green went out and coming off of turn two cars got together ending with Arnold and Shatzer sitting on the track ending their chance for a good run. Weaver took off again holding the distance now over Darling and brother Kolby Weaver all the way to the waving checkered flag.

At the line it was Kasey Weaver, Kevin Darling, Kolby Weaver, John Scarborough, Matt Mullins, Matthew Leach, Tim Stallings, Reed Thompson, Donnie Hendershot, Todd Lynn, Jerald Haris, Daren Bolac, Caleb Harris, Dave Graber, Austin Greenland, Aaron Leach, Glenn Worrell, Ryan Lynn, Mia Koponen, John Smith, Dylan Shatzer, Fred Arnold, Chris Ware and Colton Hendershot.