Timmy Bittner Fly's to First

Timmy Bittner took flight Saturday night at the Hub City oval winning his heat and taking the feature win.

Heats kicked off the night for the thirty-four IMCA sprinters on hand being won by Tyler Schell, Timmy Bittner, Ryan Lynn and Jim Pattock with Mike Alleman taking the B main.

The feature was paced to green by Timmy Bittner and Tyler Schell with Bittner out first and everybody behind trying find the groove to chase the leader.

Bittner still was up front as Kenny Heffner and Colton Hendershot were dicing for second spot as Schell was racing with Logan Spahr for fourth.

With ten to go Bittner was still out front as Hendershot made it two second as Spahr made it to third with Heffner and Kolby Weaver rounding out the top five.

Spahr made it to second with Hendershot third as a spin brought the field together for a run to the checkers as Bittner took off Spahr in tow as Heffner made it to third Hendershot fourth and Lynn now in fifth.

Spahr tried to make a charge on Bittner, but it was a little short as Bittner flashed under the waving checkered flag.
