

Virginia Sprint Series

Laurel Highlands Sprint Series

IMCA RaceSaver Sprint Series

Race #12 Saturday August 2, 2025

Hagerstown Speedway, Hagerstown, Md.

by Jim Haines

Ken Duke Dominates at Hagerstown

Ken Duke is on a roll after taking the win the night before at Clinton County Speedway he didn't take a lot of time racing to the front and lead most of the feature for the win.

Heats kicked off the night with John Scarborough, Ken Duke and Ryan Lynn taking wins.

Ryan Lyann and Josh Shantz paced the field to green with Shantz out first with Lynn right behind with Duke right behind.

A quick spin on lap two had Shantz take off again but Duke was on a charge quickly going low to the lead.

Duke was trying to check out as The Weaver brothers were making their way to the front to try to chase him down, first Kolby made it to second then Kasey got by Lynn for third as Stevie Kenawell was coming up through also.

Duke made it look easy as he stayed very smooth using mostly the bottom to keep the lead and stay out of striking distance.

With one to go all Duke had to do was keep his distance from the pack which he did all the way to the waving checkered flag for the second win of the weekend.

At the line it was Ken Duke, Kolby Weaver, Kasey Weaver, Stevie Kenawell, Ryan Lynn, Dylan Shatzer, John Scarborough, Jerald Harris, Josh Shantz, Daren Bolac, Reed Thompson, Colton Hendershot, Caleb Harris, Matt Kline, Chris Humblett, Matt Mullins, Ben Miklos, Eric Paxson, Jimmy Humblett, Dave Graber, Donny Hendershot and AJ Barton.

The special awards gift cards for the night from HTMA and Precise Racing winners were Ben Miklos, Caleb Harris, John Scarborough and Matt Kline. The HTMA tire winner was Kolby Weaver. The Hard Charger award from George Loux and the Carolina Sprint Tour was Stevie Kenawell.